Electric Lights at Minimum Cost

Electric Light is no longer a luxury. Today it is within the easy reach of all. Furthermore, it is the best light for homes, offices, stores, factories, and other interiors, because it is the most convenient and safest light obtainable.

You can have it at a minimum cost by using

MAZDA LAMPS

These lamps give three times as much light as the old carbon lamps, for the same cost for electricity.

If you are not equipped with MAZDA Lamps, come in and let us show you the difference.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

State Council Convenes This Morning
In Elks' Auditorium in This City

The sixteenth annual convention of the State Council of Knights of Columbus convened this morning at 11 o'clock in the Elks' Auditorium with delegates present from the councils at Richmond, Portsmouth, Norfolk, Newport News, Staunton, Roanoke, Lynchburg, Petersburg and Alexandria. State Deputy M. Kivlinghan, of Staunton, made an address of welcome. Brief responses were made by James A. Flaherty, supreme knight, of Philadelphia, and D. J. Callahan, supreme treasurer of Washington.

Previous to the assembling of the convention the delegates attended mass at St. Mary's Catholic Church at which the Rev. James Gilsenan, state chaplain of Roanoke, was the celebrant. The Rev. Louis Smet, pastor of St. Mary's church in this city, preached a sermon to the members.

The convention this afternoon sent a telegram to President Wilson extending to him their sympathy and loyalty in the grave European crisis.

A telegram was also sent to Bishop O'Connell of the diocese of Richmond. The telegram was signed "C. N. Noel, state secretary." The election of officers was deferred until tomorrow morning.

At three o'clock this afternoon the delegates left for Mt. Vernon where they will place a wreath on the tomb of Washington. Dinner will be served at Mt. Vernon.

There will be a ball given in their honor at the Elks' Auditorium tonight at 9 o'clock which will be attended by the visiting delegates and the members of Fitzgerald Council, Knights of Columbus, of this city.

The program tomorrow will consist of business session in the morning and afternoon, an automobile trip to Arlington and Ft. Myer and a smoker tomorrow night.

The following committee of Fitzgerald Council has charge of the local arrangements: Thomas E. Dyson, chairman, James Callan, C. Raymond Hellmuth, Frank Fannon, James A. Gilroy, J. J. Bayne, Thomas Priest, T. J. McFarland, M. E. Greene, C. M. Lennon, R. E. Power, W. H. P. Kelly and F. T. Quinn.

The following state officers and delegates are present: M. Kivlinghan, state deputy, Staunton, Va.; C. W. Noel, state secretary, Roanoke; J. Harry Bailey, state treasurer, Petersburg, Va.; James E. Phillips, state warden, Richmond, Va.; Thomas E. Dyson, state advocate, Alexandria; Rev. Father James Gilsenan, state chaplain, Roanoke, Va.; James L. Martin, past state deputy, Lynchburg, Va.; Thomas A. Murphy, and John J. Blake, delegates and William F. Enright and C. M. Dozier, alternates of Richmond Council, No. 295; F. J. Doherty and C. R. Ryan, delegates and John H. Driscoll and T. W. Spillman, alternates of Holy Cross Council, No. 595; M. E. Greene and C. T. Hellmuth, delegates and James B. Martin and C.

A SYMBOL OF HEALTH

The Pythagorians of Ancient Greece ate simple food, practiced temperance and purity. As a badge they used the five pointed star which they regarded as a symbol of health. A red five pointed star appears on each package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and still fulfills its ancient mission as a symbol of health. If you are troubled with indigestion, biliousness or constipation, get a package of these tablets from your druggist. You will be surprised at the quick relief which they afford. Obtainable everywhere.

E. Corgan, alternates, of Fitzgerald Council, No. 459; Joel T. Brown and Thomas J. O'Farrell, delegates and James M. Gallagher and Dr. J. M. Burke, alternates of Petersburg Council, No. 694; M. T. Bergin, and Daniel Crimmins, delegates and S. J. Collins and John W. Croghan, alternates, of St. Francis Council, No. 670; C. C. Mitchell and George Eakin, delegates and William H. Healy and George W. Carvill, alternates of Newport News Council, No. 511; A. B. Degges and George E. Holmes, delegates and D. L. Kelly and H. Johnson, alternates, of Norfolk Council, No. 367; C. A. McHugh and J. J. Sheehan, delegates and J. J. McCaffrey and C. A. Shank, alternates of Roanoke Council, No. 562; J. P. Slifer and J. T. Johnson, delegates and R. J. Davis, and F. H. Bilisely, alternates of St. Paul's Council, No. 418.

Some One Has Asked the Question

"What is the best thing to do in a hurry?" and given the answer

"NOTHING."

Other wise men have said: "Always in a hurry always behind."

"Haste is slow."

"Most haste, worse speed."

"Haste trips up one's own heels."

"Hastily and well never met."
